

What is the Electoral College?

1. How many electors does my state get?

Number electors = number senators + number house representatives

2. How do electors cast their votes?

Electors, who are voted in by the people, cast their ballots in a winner-take-all fashion based on the state’s popular vote

3. How many electoral votes does it take to win the election?

The candidate with majority of electoral votes wins. Today that’s 270 of 538 electoral votes.
